Numb. 8049.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 12. to Tuesday September 15. 1741.

Dantzick, September 13, N. S.

THIS Evening a Courier arrived from Petersbourg to the Ruſſian Reſident in this City, and brought an Account, that General Lacy being arrived in Finland, went on the 2d Inſtant to reconnoitre the Swediſh Army, and found them ſtrongly intrenched on a riſing Ground near a Fort called Wilmerſtrand, and well fortified: That on the 3d in the Afternoon, he ordered the Ruſſian Army to advance and attack the Swedes, which they did with ſo much Bravery, that after an obſtinate Fight of ſome Hours, the Swedes, who defended themſelves in a deſperate Manner, were put to flight, and the Ruſſian Army obtain'd a compleat Victory. The Ruſſians afterwards ſtormed and took Fort Wilmerſtrand, and made themſelves Maſters of the whole Artillery, of two conſiderable Magazines, and all the Baggage. General Wrangel, who commanded the Swediſh Army, was taken Priſoner with about 2000 Men; and the Number of Swedes that were killed in this Engagement amount to about 7000. In this Action the Left Wing of the Ruſſian Army being put into ſome Diſorder, General Lacy went himſelf with three Regiments of diſmounted Dragoons to ſupport it, where he received a ſlight Wound; and ſeveral General Officers were killed and wounded on both Sides.

Presbourg, Sept. 13, N. S. The Elector of Bavaria has ſummoned the Upper Auſtria, and the Town of Lintz, to ſend Deputies and Commiſſaries for regulating his Paſſage through that Country, and for the Maintenance of his Troops whilſt they remain in thoſe Parts. This Summons was accompanied with a Letter or Declaration, importing his Intentions, by this Expedition, to take Poſſeſſion of all the late Emperor's Succeſſion.

Antwerp, Sept. 21, N. S. The firſt Column of the French Army, under the Command of M. de Maillebois, arrived in their Camp near Liege on the 6th Inſtant, and halted there till the 9th, when they marched forward by the Way of Aix la Chapelle, through the Dutchy of Limbourg, and were replaced the ſame Day by the ſecond Column, which was ſucceeded by the third Column on the 12th, and theſe marched again on the 15th, ſo that the whole Army is probably by this time joined at Neuſs, on the South Side of the Rhine, about a German Mile above Duſſeldorp, where they are to incamp for ſome Days.

Whitehall, September 15.

Captain Medley, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship the Naſſau, writes Word, that his Boats had taken out of a little Bay near Vivero, two Barks laden with Lime and Crockery Ware, and that he had ordered the Things to be taken out and the Barks to be ſunk.

And Captain Martin, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship the Aſſiſtance, writes Word, that he has taken two Prizes, which he is bringing to Spithead; the firſt of which is called the Conception, of 180 Tons, bound from Port Paſſage to Cartagena, with Beef, Pork and Flour for the King of Spain's Fleet; ſhe was commanded by Don Juan Gonzalez, and had 37 Men on board. And the other, the